Flowing in GOD'S Rhythms

Thank you friends and partners for sending me back to Ireland for such a time as this. I am extremely grateful that you are walking with me and supporting me through your prayers, finances and words of encouragement. As we are joined together in Christ, though many, we form one body and belong to each other (Romans 12:5). I count it a privilege to walk this never-before-traveled path.

How can I articulate appropriately God's peace and presence over my life? How can I tell you how passionate I am to carry the love and hope of Jesus through the doors HE opens?

The old has passed away...

When you receive this newsletter it will be 2 years since God took Larry to heaven. Yes, 2 years on October 21, 2011. I landed back in Ireland in late July via an unexpectant ministry trip to Argentina. I am daily learning how to "do this" without Larry.

...behold, the new has come.

My "new day" has come through a day-by-day process of "showing up" in Jesus' presence. Some would refer to this as "BE-ing" rather than "DO-ing." God says, "Come to ME. Trust in ME. Do not lean on your own understanding. I will direct your paths. My ways and thoughts are higher than yours." Simple? Not exactly. Jesus guides us into HIS rhythms which are often opposite of this world's rhythms. In His rhythms, tasks become simpler. When we "show up" in His presence, He forms our routines that flow with His Spirit in order to accomplish His plans and purposes for each and every day. So upon the foundation of BE-ing, my "new day" is filled with partnering, mentoring, ministering, equipping and carrying His Kingdom.

Re-forming Brokenness

Does God perhaps also have you in a place of living your life out-loud in transparency in order to bring His hope to others? Our imperfection, weakness and brokenness are beautiful offerings the Master-Potter uses to shape, mold and re-form us in order to display His splendor. Our very willingness to allow this reformation process can bring transformation to others. Living in Ireland over the past 20 years I have learned the importance of RELATIONSHIP in bringing the Kingdom of God. My Irish friends and co-laborers are RELATIONAL people, and together we are seeing a nation be transformed. Thank you for sharing in this missional journey with me.

FIRMLY in HIS grip! ~ Ann ~
